The Mock Marriage.

The trials of the parties concerned in the mock marriage, of which we made mention last week, were commenced on Tuesday and strung out for several days. Williams, the man who performed the ceremony, was held over in $500 to the Circuit Court. Morgan, the groom, was not satisfied with Judge Thomson and Squire McDonald as a court and swore them off. Squires W. B. Clark and Judge R. E. Gaffes, were summoned and after hearing the case, also held him over in $1,000. Morgan Lane and John Beeler, the parties who helped on the fun, were tried before Judge Thomson and Squire McDonald and discharged.

Nannie Phillips, the girl who was made the dupe of these men, testified that she knew all the time the marriage was a sham affair, but nevertheless lived with Morgan as his wife until he was arrested, which was an entirely different story from the one she told when Morgan was first arrested.

We are informed that this is not the first time that Morgan has played the same game. It is said that several years ago he induced a young girl residing in Shelby county to elope with him to Lexington, where a mock marriage ceremony was said by his brother, and after living with the girl two or three weeks, deserted her. He has a wife living in Louisville, whom he leaves to make a livelihood for herself and several children, and goes back to live with her whenever it suits his convenience.

Great injustice was done Mr. Plickens Tremere in connecting his name with this affair, as he only wrote a statement on a scrap of paper to the effect that the parties were entitled to be married according to the laws of Kentucky, without signing any name to it, in order to get rid of the men, who were all drunk. He knew nothing of them and had never seen some of them before.

In a county where criminal prosecutions are but mere forms and bought juries common talk, it is not to be wondered at that such hand-bills as the following make their appearance:

TO THE CITIZENS OF FRANKFORT.

A casual meeting of some of the best citizens of the city, who are deeply interested in its welfare, and have the protection of life and property, and especially the virtue of defenseless women, at heart, has led to a proposition to organize at once a Vigilance Committee.

Murders, rapes, seductions, and mock marriages have become the order of the day. The city is overrun with ex-convicts and desperadoes, escaped criminals and vagrants. The police and the courts are powerless to remedy these evils.

How long this state of affairs shall continue may depend upon the will of a few good men. Let the hands of our officers be strengthened and bad men invited to take a walk. Let the lives of our men and the virtue of our women be protected.

The undersigned have secured the consent of a brave, bold, and prudent man to organize and lead you. We will wait upon you with invitations to become members, which should be esteemed a high compliment, as a list of only good and true men has been carefully prepared to choose from.

If you can't become a member of the Committee give it your moral support. No violation of the law (except in extreme cases) is contemplated, but it is to vindicate and uphold the law, religion, and good morals that this committee is proposed. Let its members feel that this task has been committed to it by you, and that you will stand by them until they abuse the trust. Remember that the price of liberty is eternal vigilance, and organize promptly. In the meantime ex-convicts and unrepentant sinners had better get out of the way of the procession. Respectfully,

SUB-COMMITTEE.

Mr. Walter C. Bailey died at the residence of his son-in-law, Col. Ike Wingate, at Woodlake, in this county, Thursday night. The funeral took place at Col. Wingate's residence yesterday afternoon and the remains will be taken to the old home of the deceased at Lancaster this morning, for interment.

The commencement exercises at the K. M. I. took place Thursday and were largely attended by ladies and gentlemen from this city and county, as well as neighboring cities. A number of former graduates of the school were among the number. There were eight or ten graduates.

We will say for the benefit of those who send us lengthy obituary notices of their departed friends that our space will not admit of their publication, where they exceed one inch in length, unless they are paid for. We cannot undertake to re-write and get them in shape for publication, which is necessary in nine cases out of ten, as it requires too much time.

BASE BALL.

The Frankfort Club returned from their trip North Sunday afternoon, bringing with them McLaughlin, a first-class pitcher, who was signed at Erie, Pennsylvania, by Manager Franklin.

On Monday afternoon they met the Springfield nine for the first time on the home grounds, when the game resulted as follows, McLaughlin pitching for the home team:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—T.
Springfield.....0 1 1 0 5 0 2 0—10
Frankfort.....0 0 1 1 0 0 2 1 0—5

Tuesday afternoon Wells pitched and the score was as follows:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—T.
Springfield.....0 1 2 0 0 1 3 3—14
Frankfort.....0 1 0 1 1 1 1 2—8

Tuesday night Manager Franklin went to Lexington, signed Reader, Connelly, Flynn and Crogan, of the disbanded Lexington Club, and brought them home with him next morning. By the addition of these new men the club was greatly strengthened, and Wednesday's game was much more interesting. The ladies were admitted free and a much larger crowd was in attendance. McLaughlin was again put in to pitch, with Schildknecht to catch him, and the score was as follows:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—T.
Springfield.....0 0 2 1 5 0 1 8—28
Frankfort.....1 0 0 8 1 0 0 2 0—12

As the Frankfort Club was run at a loss to the management it was thought best to disband after the close of the game which was accordingly done.

Pure Blood and Strong Nerves.

At 19 years of age I was afflicted with fearful pains in my head, eyes, shoulders and right side, and began to spit blood. I tried quite a number of physicians, whose medicines only brought temporary relief. They called it cold, and after exhausting their treatment, said I was sure to die. Being an orphan, and in poor health all my life, I thought death would be a relief. But, for twelve years, I suffered. My only solace was in morphine. For two years I never slept day a night without morphine, so intense was my suffering. During the spring of 1881 I was induced to try Swift's Specific. It acted like a charm. It was a God-send to me. After using it that season, I was completely restored. It gave me pure blood, strong nerves, sound mind and good health. I am now thirty-five years of age and am in perfect health as any lady in Atlanta. Ten thousand tongues could not express my gratitude for finding this wonderful medicine. I commend it to suffering humanity.

ADALINE COLLINS, Atlanta, Ga. Jan. 1, 1884.

Dry Tetter Cured.

I have been afflicted with a disease termed Dry Tetter, and have applied various remedies, but to no permanent good. I saw an advertisement announcing that Swift's Specific had cured Mr. James Dunning, of Louisville, Ky., of this terrible disease. I procured thirteen bottles at once and began its use. At the end of seven months there was not the least sign of tetter on my person, nor has there been a symptom of its return up to date. Therefore I cheerfully recommend Swift's Specific to all who are afflicted with this painful disease. I am very thankful that I ever heard of Swift's Specific. It has brought health and happiness to my home.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 6, 1885.

Miss Stella E. Guber, of this city, and Mr. F. J. Northington, of Christian county, were married Tuesday morning, at the residence of Mr. L. A. Thomas, Rev. George Darsie officiating. The newly wedded pair left on the 8:10 train for their future home.

"Uncle Billy" Gray Dead.

Another old citizen passed suddenly out of existence when Mr. W. H. Gray breathed his last on Saturday afternoon. Being stationed at the distillery of Mr. J. Swigert Taylor, in Woodford county, in the capacity of Government Storekeeper, he was seated at a table in the office making out his reports, and only a few minutes before had remarked to Mr. J. S. Johnson, the superintendent of the distillery: "Stape, old fellow, I feel better than I ever did in my life." A young man entered the office about fifteen minutes after and found that his pen, having dropped from his grasp, was sticking in the floor, his body was inclined to one side and resting against the wall, while life was extinct. He gave the alarm and the employees about the place ran to his assistance, but it was found that heart disease had suddenly and surely done its work. The remains were brought to this city and his funeral took place from his late residence on Lewis street Monday afternoon, and was largely attended by his old friends and associates.

The deceased came to this city from Virginia, when a young man, and was clerk at the old Welser House for several years. He afterwards went into the confectionery business on the corner of Main and Ann streets, where Mr. Con. McAniff's house now stands, with Mr. Ben Cogar, under the firm name of Cogar & Gray. Mr. Cogar afterwards sold out to Mr. William George, now of Chicago, when the firm became Gray & George and removed to a store on Main street, where the establishment of Mr. A. G. Abstrom now stands. Mr. George in turn sold out to Mr. James M. Todd and the firm of Gray & Todd was one of the prominent business firms of the city for sixteen years, their place of business being the store on the corner of Main and Lewis streets, now occupied by Messrs. Rodman & Bro. In 1867 the firm began to speculate in cotton and both were bankrupted, together with many other business men of the city.

Mr. Gray then obtained an appointment as United States Gauger, and continued in the Government employ up to his death. In 1855 he made the race for the Legislature in this county and was defeated, after a close contest, by Judge Jos. Harlan, now of Louisville.

He was upright and honorable in all his dealings, true to his friends, and an active, hard-working business man. Peace to his ashes.

The Blue Wing did not get up until nearly 10 o'clock Thursday night, but notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, quite a number went from this city on the excursion up the river.

Rev. George Darsie preaches as usual to-morrow morning and evening at the Christian Church, and will leave Monday for a visit to Ohio and Pennsylvania, to be absent two weeks.

Rev. Harry Bagby, son of Rev. G. F. Bagby, of this city, who has been attending the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, has received a call to take charge of a Mission Church in that city.

Dr. C. V. Williams had a grip sack stolen from his buggy Sunday night containing a fine rocket case of instruments. He advertised that if it was returned a reward would be paid and no questions asked. As a result, it was set back in his buggy Thursday night.

TO WATER CONSUMERS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15th, 1885. THE NEW WATER SERVICE PIPES NOW being laid in this city are in many cases placed at a depth under the surface of sidewalks or ground, both in the streets and private premises, not greater than eighteen inches. Long experience in this latitude has established the fact that service water pipes laid at a depth of less than three feet under ground are not safe against frost. When laid at a shallower depth they frequently freeze, burst, and interrupt the continuity of the water supply, and necessitate expenses for repairs tenfold greater than the first cost of placing the pipe at the proper depth. For this reason, acting in the interest of both the water consumers, and the water department, notice is hereby given that water will not be turned on services laid at a shallower depth than three feet under ground. The people are also cautioned against the trouble in store for them, by the acts of plumbers who locate hydrants and other fixtures for drawing water, in violation and defiance of the Water Company's Rule No. 3, on page 2 of its Rules and Regulations, and of the provisions of the City Ordinance. By SAM'L A. MILLER, Pres. FRANKFORD WATER CO. May 30th.

WRIT OF ELECTION.

WHEREAS JAMES G. CROCKETT, the clerk of the Franklin County Court, has reported this fact, it is therefore and hereby ordered that the clerk of said county open a poll at each and every voting place in said county, on the first Monday in August, that day being the 30th day of August, 1885, to fill the vacancy of clerk of the Franklin County Court, caused by the death of the said James G. Crockett, clerk aforesaid; and said election shall be held and the returns of the same be heard and done, upon such cases made and provided by law. Given under my hand this 23rd day of May, 1885. R. A. THOMSON, Presiding Judge of the F. C. C.

In pursuance of the foregoing writ of election J. W. Gaines, Sheriff of Franklin county, will on the 30th day of August, 1885, proceed to open a poll at all the legal voting places in the county of Franklin. Said poll to be opened and said election held to choose and elect some suitable person to fill the unexpired term of James G. Crockett, deceased late clerk of the Franklin County Court. Given under my hand this 23rd day of May, 1885. J. W. GAINES, Sheriff of Franklin County.
